

I want to keep my phone line open to family members and people I know for emergencies,I cannot afford all the extra phone options to have important people leaving messages, or waiting and I don't have time to run to phone to find out it is someone wanting money or to sell me something!Do not let anyone take me off the "DO NOT Call" list!